ISP selling your data

- “Unbeknownst to you, there’s a good possibility that your Internet Service Provider (ISP) regularly sells your data to boost their profits.” [1]
- What implications does this have?
- People are unaware of how much data is being sold

Whats the legal situation

- Laws vary accross the planet
- USA - mandated that they must accuire consent
- UK - citezen must now ask ISPs to remove thier personal data
- EU - Eveything must be subject to informed consent
- China - Its like the Wild West
